

Behavior Technician

Start your career at Centria Autism

At Centria, your growth is in your hands. Our Behavior Technician Career Track is designed for skill mastery, clear career progression and performance-driven pay increases.

The Staff Integrity Assessment (SIA) is our primary tool for measuring clinical alignment and performance. For new Behavior Technicians, this formal measurement period begins on the first day of the calendar month following your first billable shift.

Earn an extra $1.25/hr over your first year with a client!

Build Your Career Track

Meet your clinical competency goals to level up.

RBT Certification

Earn an immediate +$1.00/hr raise upon certification.

Merit Increases

Up to 5% annually after reaching BT III.

Specialized Roles & Future Opportunities

Lead Behavior Technician (LBT)

Assist new BTs with training and support the start of their journey.

Clinical Support Specialist (CSS)

Provide direct clinical support and quality assurance.

Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)

Elevate, our paid practicum program is designed to provide the mentorship, supervision and training needed to become a confident and competent BCBA.